

THE BEST LINGTON EVER !

I remembered a time when I did my oral presentation in school. When I started to present, some of my friends laughed at me. They made me feel so embarrassed and so bad. Suddenly, I pointed to them and yell "cut it out". My teacher and my classmates stared at me. Haha, I had a reflex action at that time... It was so unexpected!

After my SPM examination, I thought I would be spending my entire holiday staying at home doing nothing. Therefore, I decided to attend an English class. At first, I felt this class would be boring and I will learn the same thing like in school. However, I am so wrong about it.

Before I attend the class, my English was so bad. I'm shy especially to communicate with others in English. I also have low self - confidence and prefer to keep quiet rather than speak out my mind. However, I have found the new me when I attended the class. I can communicate with my friends in English without hesitation even though my English and communication skills were not so good. I also can speak my mind and have high self-confidence. There are lots of things that I've learned in Brillington such as how to do the CV letter, Cover Letter, attend the interview sessions and many more.

My classroom teacher, Mr. David is very friendly, helpful, energetic, creative and a very happy person. He helps me a lot in improving my pronunciation and also always gave us lots of advice. I am so happy to have him to be my teacher. In addition, I have lots of new friends which they are very helpful, friendly, funny, and kind. I am free to talk to them in English as they will not laugh at me when I made mistakes. I LOVE THEM SO MUCH! =)

I am very glad and feel so lucky that I found Brillington, the best language centre ever. I also would love to give thanks to all of the staff and teachers who are very friendly and helpful. I will never ever forget a moment I have here.

To all the future school leavers, don't misjudge this language centre. There are lots of fun and things that you will learn here. One word I can describe about it, it was FUN, INSPIRING, CHALLENGING & REAL!!!
